

IMAGINE THE POSSIBILITIES

“Through our commitment to service excellence, LEFPA provides outstanding experiences for our guests in order to be a catalyst to enhance both local and regional economic growth. This is accomplished by developing strong relationships with our diverse customers, sponsors, and partnering with those that share the same vision. Chase Creative is one of those partners and why they are our preferred, in house audio visual provider for customers of the Lansing Center. The team at Chase Creative specialize in audiovisual equipment and staging design that will meet any customer’s needs, and through their commitment to service and affordability, makes them a trusted industry leader and partner of the Lansing Center.” – Scott Keith, President & CEO, LEFPA
